FOCUS ON FAMILY!

It's not easy saying no to our children in a society that seems to say yes to everything. Perhaps one of the most challenging problems facing today's parents is learning not to give our children too much. If you never allow the opportunity for your child to work towards something they really want you may be depriving them the satisfaction of obtaining something through their own efforts. You see, saying no to something they want at times, and telling them they need to earn it is a great character builder for your child, and it will undoubtedly instil in them an essential principle for later in life.. the value of saving for something they want, rather than going deeper into debt because they can't afford it.

Verse of the Week

For I am convinced that neither death nor life, neither angels nor demons, neither the present nor the future, nor any powers, neither height nor depth, nor anything else in all creation, will be able to separate us from the love of God that is in Christ Jesus our Lord.
Romans 8:38-39 NIV
