

Since returning this term from holidays, I have noticed a few episodes of students behaving badly. So I thought this might be a good opportunity to remind everyone, adults included, about our 2 WHOLE SCHOOL RULES.

The Golden Rule: "Do to others, as you would wish them to do to you" Matthew 7:12. This means treating others in a way that you would also want to be treated yourself.

The Six Inch Rule: this simply means that students are to maintain a distance from another's personal space. This covers any undue physical contact, which may harm or injure others, or that of a sexual nature.

Imagine if we all purposely practised both these things; imagine if the world practised both these things! It all starts with 'me'.

VERSE OF THE WEEK

"Do you not know? Have you not heard? The LORD is the everlasting God, the Creator of the ends of the earth. He will not grow tired or weary, and his understanding no one can fathom. He gives strength to the weary and increases the power of the weak. Even youths grow tired and weary, and young men stumble and fall; but those who hope in the Lord will renew their strength. they will soar on wings like eagles, they will run and not grow weary they will walk and not be faint."

Isaiah 40:28-31
