

THE GEN

Week 1 - Term 4 - 2022

Verse of the Week

"And you shall know the truth, and the truth shall set you free."

John 8:32

Prayer Points

- Pray for our Year 11/12 students as they prepare for Exams.
- Thank God for a safe holiday!!
- Pray for our new families as they settle into school life at Geneva.
- Pray for our school families affected by the recent flooding.

BUT IT IS TRUE!

If you are wondering about life and what it really is all about. And if you are not sure about God, the Bible, Jesus and the whole Christian thing, then read on.

Let's imagine, that even if you don't believe in the things of the Bible, but you want a prosperous life anyway, what would that look like? I think you would want it to look something like this.

A life of love, joy, harmony; a life that is full and flourishing and one where people are kind, generous, caring and forgiving. And then when you get to the end of that life, and death overcomes you, you would want peace. Sounds about right, doesn't it.

However, when you get to the end of your life and you discover that what the Bible describes IS TRUE, but you haven't reached out to God, sort His forgiveness, and followed Jesus. You simply lived the talk, but not the walk, and now you find your end is not how you thought.

I am telling you that you can have both. The fulfilling life and the continued peace filled eternity after death. Come to Jesus, reach out and accept Him and the gift of true life, can be yours, now and forever.

"What shall it profit us, if we gain the whole world and all it offers, but at the end, lose everything, including our souls?"

Mark 8:36
